On April 22, 2016, the parties approached the court with a joint motion to modify the briefing schedule, requesting that the court “hold in abeyance the remaining briefing schedule” to allow settlement negotiations, which motion the court granted. In the joint motion, the parties agreed to “submit to the Court a new briefing schedule – if needed – by 31 May.” It is now September, the parties have not filed a new briefing schedule, nor a settlement proposal, nor any other motion or proposal to dispose of this case.

The new Associate Justice will arrive in November of this year. Plaintiff shall file a statement of intent to proceed and request for status conference by October 28, 2016. Failure to do so may result in dismissal of this case.

It is so ORDERED.
