Civil Action No. 2014-067

JOINT MOTION TO MODIFY BRIEFING
SCHEDULE; [Proposed] ORDER

The parties, through their attorneys below, move the Court to modify its Order of 26 January 2017 for the following reasons:

Per counsel James McCaffrey:

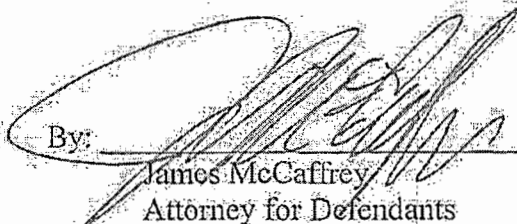

With the best of intentions I believed the 26 January 2017 extension to 14 February would be sufficient and I have worked on this matter. However, I also had an appellate brief due in the 37 year old Bikej case, S.Ct. 2015-04. That brief is now 99% complete but took much longer than expected. I have worked on it every day since last Tuesday, including over the weekend, nearly all day every day, except when I was working on this matter.

While I might be able to complete some sort of Opposition to the motion by tomorrow afternoon it would not be as complete as I would like.

I have contacted Mr. Benjamin and he has graciously agreed to this requested three day extension to Friday, 17 February: "Yes Jim, no objection for the extension."

Dated: 13 February 2017
