 - (iv) the responsibilities and privileges of citizenship, other than those referred to in paragraphs (a) and (b).

C. Substantial Connection with the Marshall Islands

15. The criteria for determining whether a person has a substantial connection with Marshall Islands are

- (1) that the applicant has been employed, for at least five of the seven years immediately before the date of the application, in the public service of the Republic or in the service of the representative of the Republic to the United Nations or one of its affiliated agencies or other international organization to which the Republic is a member; or
- (2) that since attaining the age of 14 years, the applicant has spent more than five years in the Republic with a parent, brother, sister, aunt, uncle or grandparent or in attendance at a recognized secondary or post-secondary educational institution in the Republic for not less than five years.

PART VII: CEREMONIALS

A. OATH OF CITIZENSHIP

15. Unless the Cabinet otherwise directs, the oath of citizenship shall be taken at a citizenship ceremony.

16. Where a person is to take the oath of citizenship at a citizenship ceremony, the Attorney General shall notify the person of the date, time and place at which the person is to appear before the Cabinet to take the oath of citizenship and receive the person's certificate of citizenship.

17. (1) Where a person who fails to appear and take the oath of citizenship at the citizenship ceremony appointed for that purpose fails, within 60 days after that date, to satisfy the Minister, that the person was prevented from appearing by some good and sufficient cause, the person's certificate of citizenship shall be returned to the Attorney General and may at the Minister's discretion be cancelled.

(2) Where a person described in subregulation (1) satisfies the Minister of the matter referred to in that subregulation, another date, time and place shall be appointed by the Minister for the person to appear and take the oath of citizenship.

18. The Cabinet or a person authorized by the Cabinet in writing to act on its behalf may administer the oath of citizenship to any person who has been granted citizenship and, in such case, the Attorney General shall make all the necessary arrangements for the purpose of administering the oath.

19. Subject to Regulation 20, a person who takes the oath of citizenship pursuant shall, at the time the person takes it, sign a certificate in prescribed form certifying that the person has taken the oath, and the certificate shall be countersigned by the Minister.

20. A person who has been granted citizenship under the Act shall unless otherwise prevented from understanding the significance of taking oath of citizenship either by reason of minority or mental disability, take the oath of citizenship by swearing or solemnly affirming it before the Cabinet.

B. CEREMONIAL PROCEDURES OF CITIZENSHIP CONFERMENT

21. (1) A certificate of citizenship issued to a person who has been granted citizenship under the Act shall be presented at a citizenship conferment ceremony.

(2) The ceremonial procedures to be followed by the Cabinet shall be appropriate to impress on new citizens the responsibilities and privileges of citizenship and, without limiting the generality of the foregoing, the Cabinet shall, during a ceremony held for the presentation of certificates of citizenship,

(a) emphasize the significance of the ceremony as a milestone in the lives of the new citizens;

(b) administer the oath of citizenship with dignity and solemnity, allowing the greatest possible freedom in the religious solemnization or the solemn affirmation thereof;

(c) present certificates of citizenship; and

(d) promote good citizenship, including respect for the law, the exercise of the right to vote, participation in community affairs and intergroup understanding.

(e) obey all laws - taxes.

- (a) set out in the application the reasons for desiring another certificate of citizenship; and
- (b) surrender all certificates referred to in paragraph (1)(a) that are in the person's possession to the Attorney General
 - (i) at the time the application is filed, or
 - (ii) at the time the new certificate is received.

(4) Where an application is made pursuant to subregulation (3) for reasons of loss or destruction of a certificate of naturalization or certificate of citizenship that contains the applicant's photograph, the applicant shall provide the details of the loss or destruction.

(5) Where a person who has been issued a certificate of renunciation makes an application for another certificate, the person shall

- (a) set out in the application the reasons for desiring another certificate; and
- (b) surrender the previously issued certificate to the Attorney General
 - (i) at the time the application is filed, or
 - (ii) at the time the new certificate is received.

(6) Where an application is made pursuant to subregulation (5) for reasons of loss or destruction of the previously issued certificate, the applicant shall provide the details of the loss or destruction.

(7) The Attorney General may require a person referred to in subregulation (3) or (5) to provide the Attorney-General with such evidence as the Attorney-General deems necessary to be satisfied that the issuance of the certificate will not be in contravention of subregulation (1).

24. (1) The Attorney-General may, in writing, require a person to surrender to the Attorney-General any certificate of naturalization or certificate of citizenship that contains the person's photograph, or certificate of renunciation, issued or granted to the person under the Act these Regulations if there is reason to believe that the person may not be entitled to the certificate or has violated any of the provisions of the Act, and the person shall forthwith comply with the requirement.

(2) Where the Attorney-General is of the opinion that the holder of a certificate of naturalization, certificate of citizenship, or other certificate of citizenship that contains the holder's photograph, or certificate of renunciation, contravened any provision of the Act, the Attorney-General shall cause to be retained any certificate surrendered to the Attorney-General by that person until that certificate is no longer required as evidence in any legal proceedings that may be instituted in consequence of the alleged contravention.

(3) Where the Minister has determined pursuant to section 407 of the Act that the holder of a certificate of naturalization or certificate of citizenship that contains the holder's photograph, or certificate of renunciation, issued or granted under the Act or these Regulations is not entitled to the certificate, the Attorney General shall cancel the certificate.

(4) The Attorney General shall forthwith return the certificate to the person where the Minister has determined that the person is entitled to the certificate.

B. GENERAL

25. A birth certificate or other official document forwarded by a person in connection with an application under these Regulations shall be returned to the person when it is no longer required for the purpose of the application.

26. Notwithstanding anything in these Regulations, a person who makes an application under the Act shall furnish any additional evidence in connection with the application that may be required to establish that the person meets the requirements of the Act and these Regulations.

27. An application for a search of the records kept in the course of the administration of the Act shall be made in prescribed form and shall be filed with the Attorney General.

PART IX: FEES

28. (1) Subject to this Regulation, for an application set out in column I of the schedule, the fee set out in column II of that item is payable to the Attorney General.

(2) No fee is payable in respect of the administration of an oath of citizenship.

(3) No fee is payable in respect of the administration of an oath, solemn affirmation or statutory declaration where it is administered by a person employed by the Government of the Republic of the Marshall Islands.

(4) No fee is payable in respect of the replacement of a certificate where the certificate was lost, mislaid or mutilated or destroyed without lawful excuse by a court of law, a department or agency of the Government of the Republic of the Marshall Islands.

(5) No fee is payable in respect of a search of the records kept in the course of the administration of the Act or the provision of a copy of a document from those records where the search or copy is requested by
